2005 Mid-Summer Class Schedule

Precious Metal Clay

Instructor LeAnn Doljac

Class Fee $95

This is a hands-on, fun, no-fail class with Precious Metal Clay (PMC). PMC is a pliable fine silver clay-like medium, that after firing is 99.9% solid fine silver. No experience is needed! We will cover the basics.. different methods of forming, techniques for patterns making, overlays and construction techniques. You will learn all about firing, cleaning and finishing techniques for your pieces. You will start with PMC and end with earrings, charms, pin or small pendant in fine silver. Plus your very own mold to take home with you. (Have a favorite tiny trinket? .. bring it to class with you).

Mon. & Wed., July 11th and 13th from 6:30p - 9:30p

Spiral look Necklace or Bracelet

Instructor: Robin Young

Class fee $45

You will learn how to make a spiral look bracelet that looks like a million bucks but is very bead stitch friendly. This has the look of a beaded crochet bracelet without using zillions of beads and taking a lot of time. If you took the beaded cabochon class, you can make a necklace to hang your beautiful creation on. This is a beginner class and no experience is necessary to learn this stitch. You just have to want to make something fun. Students should bring the following items if they have them. Work surface of choice, size 11 beading needles, power pro, magnifying glasses. max 6 students
